October 22, 2012

Mr. Barry Cadden
c/o Bruce Singal, Esq.
Donoghue Barrett & Singal, P.C.
One Beacon Street, Suite 1320
Boston, MA 02108

Dear Mr. Cadden:

Pursuant to Rules X and XI of the U.S. House of Representatives, the Committee is investigating the facts surrounding the recent outbreak of fungal meningitis linked to contaminated steroids made and distributed by the New England Compounding Center (NECC). We understand that, until recently, you were an owner, President, and Director of Pharmacy at the NECC.

On October 11, 2012, the Committee wrote to you, in your capacity as an owner, President, and Director of Pharmacy at NECC, to request that NECC preserve all relevant documents and communications. In addition, we requested that the NECC make arrangements with Committee staff to schedule a briefing to occur no later than October 18, 2012. While we are disappointed that neither you nor anyone else from the NECC made themselves available to brief Committee staff, the Committee must proceed with the investigation. We expect that you will cooperate in this matter.

To assist the Committee in better understanding the facts surrounding this outbreak, as well as the history of investigations and operations at the NECC and other companies you were or currently are affiliated with that were at any point involved in the production, sale, and/or distribution of drug products, please provide the following documents, from January 1, 2002, to the present, by no later than November 5, 2012:

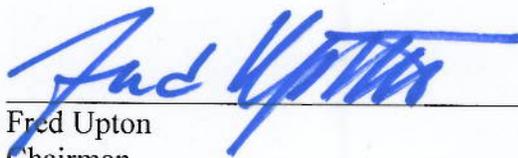

1. All documents containing communications referring or relating to any license or inspection of the NECC, Ameridose, and/or Alaunus that you sent or received using a personal email account;
2. All documents containing communications referring or relating to the scope of business conducted by the NECC, Ameridose, and/or Alaunus that you sent or received using a personal email account. Such documents would include, but are not limited to, emails referring or relating to the nature or size of orders and/or shipments, as well as related interactions with officials, staff, administrators, or employees of the NECC, Ameridose, and/or Alaurus, and/or actual or potential customers;

3. All documents containing communications referring or relating to any safety and/or quality issue related to any product produced, sold, and/or distributed by the NECC, Ameridose, and/or Alaurus that you sent or received using a personal email account.

An attachment to this letter provides additional information about how to respond to the Committee's request. Should you have any questions, please contact John Stone with the Committee staff at (202) 225-2927.
